From Mike and Marty Hasty:

Thank you so very much for your prayers, love and support after the death of our son/stepson, Tim. Thank you to all who brought delicious food to our home and the paper products to serve the food on. Thank you for the cards, calls and those who stopped by with hugs. A very special thank you, also, to the ladies who prepared the great meal for us after the Memorial Service. We are so blessed to be part of this church family. God Bless you all.

From Clint Coleman: I want to thank the committee and the church for the scholarship I was given. It really helps out a lot with my expenses. I appreciate all the support the church gives me.

From Lisa Grace: Thank you all so much for your continued support and generosity. This whole seminary education thing is pretty expensive, and the scholarship that I receive helps to defray that immensely. You are all constantly in my heart and in my prayers, and I know that I am yours. It warms my spirit knowing that I have such a wonderful congregation with me in every step of my journey. Thank you so much!

PASTOR'S PONDERINGS

To begin the task of discovering a new identity, think back to an occasion of Jesus praying alone.

His disciples draw near and Jesus asks them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

The disciples set forth an array of answers: John the Baptist, Elijah, an ancient prophet from the past. Jesus probes for the personal response.

"But who do you say that I am?" he asks.

And Peter, boldly and clearly, proclaims, "The Messiah of God".

In so many ways the world is asking the church today, "Who do you say that you are?" The interim time is an ideal time to boldly consider what your answer to this question to be.

Cell Phone vs. Bible

Did you ever wonder what would happen if we treated our Bible like we treat our cell phone?

- What if we carried it around in our purses or pockets?
- What if we flipped through it several times a day?
- What if we turned back to go get it if we forgot it?
- What if we used it to receive messages from the text?
- What if we treated it like we couldn't live without it?
- What if we gave it to kids as gifts?
- What if we used it when we traveled?
- What if we used it in case of emergency?

Oh, and one more thing. Unlike our cell phone, we don't have to worry about our Bible being disconnected because Jesus already paid the bill.

Makes you stop and think; "Where are my priorities?"
